FLOWERS

• MATTHEW 6:28-33 •

Matthew 6:28 And why take ye thought for raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin:<sup>29</sup> And yet I say unto you, That even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.<sup>30</sup> Wherefore, if God so clothe the grass of the field, which to day is, and to morrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith?

A field of vibrant red poppies in full bloom, set against a lush green background of foliage and stems. The flowers are the central focus, with their bright red petals contrasting sharply with the surrounding greenery. The lighting is natural, highlighting the texture of the petals and the delicate structure of the stems.

Matthew 6:31 “Therefore do not worry, saying, ‘What shall we eat?’ or ‘What shall we drink?’ or ‘What shall we wear?’<sup>32</sup> For after all these things the Gentiles seek. For your heavenly Father knows that you need all these things.<sup>33</sup> But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added to you.”
